CPN of North Carolina Announces 2020 Star Award Winners

Greensboro, NC: Announcing the winners of the CPN of North Carolina Star Award winning projects for 2020.

Due to COVID-19 travel restrictions, the 2020 Annual Conference at The Greenbrier Resort in West Virginia was rescheduled to spring of 2021. A video was created at each of the winning projects and emailed to CPN members announcing the winners. An “in person” presentation to all of the CPN members who participated on the projects will be made at a later date. CPN presents the annual Star Awards in connection with outstanding construction and design projects completed throughout North Carolina that positively influence our community and industry.

Three awards were given – one for projects with construction costs Under $10 Million, one for construction costs $10 Million- $25 Million, and an award for construction costs Over $25 Million.
